CHICAGO MARKET.
Friday Morning, Feb. 11—7 A. M.

There is nothing new in the market to-day. Produce of every description remains unchanged on a limited scale, and is dull and heavy. The market is without any animation, and its recent buoyancy entirely gone. Pork and Lard continue to be nominally quotable, but at the lowest quotations of many days past. Packers were unwilling to make offers, and sellers were not disposed to force matters. Flour, Grain and Provisions, in short, are without change. We quote Wheat at 75@76c in store and delivered, as to quality. Corn 32@33c. Oats—Sales of 1,000 bu. at 20c. Barley—Wheat sell at 75@80c F bu, and very little offered. Corn—Sales of 1,000 bu. at 30c. Oats—Sales of 2,000 bu. at 18c. Barley—Sales of 1,000 bu. at 30c. Rye—Nothing offering. Shelled Corn—Sales of 1,000 bu. at 30c. Flour—Sales of 200 bbls. at $4 25 @ $4 50. Pork—Sales of 100 bbls. at $4 12½ @ $4 25. Lard—Sales of 100 bbls. at 5c. Butter—Sales of 1,000 lbs. at 12½c. Cheese—Sales of 1,000 lbs. at 6c. Potatoes—Sales of 1,000 bu. at 20c. Hay—Sales of 10 tons at $8. Hides—Sales of 1,000 lbs. at 3c. Tallow—Sales of 1,000 lbs. at 6c. Wool—Sales of 1,000 lbs. at 20c.

By Orders from Boston.
NEW YORK MARKET—Feb. 10.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.
FOR THE CURE OF
COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, INFLUENZA, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA AND CONSUMPTION.

Many years of trial, instead of impairing the public confidence in the virtues of this remedy, have but served to strengthen it, and constantly, by the unsolicited testimony of the most eminent members of the medical profession, and of the most intelligent classes of society, has the conviction been forced upon us, that it possesses a controlling power over the formidable diseases of the throat and lungs, which is unknown to any other medicine. While it is a fixed on the public to pretend that any one medicine will infallibly cure—and that is abundantly proved by the fact that we daily see it cure—we may safely say, that in the Cherry Pectoral, the afflicted will find relief, and, in most instances, a perfect cure. Public confidence in this remedy is not of recent growth, but has been established for years, and is daily increasing, as its virtues become more extensively known. Prepared by

J. C. AYER, M. D.,
Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

Sold everywhere and retail, in Chicago, by J. R. REED & CO., and sold by the Druggists generally throughout the world country.
